JOURNAL POLICIES • The Sarawak Museum Journal is published by the Sarawak Museum Department. As it is a Government Department in the State of Sarawak, it should be clearly understood that responsibility for facts and opinion rests exclusively with authors of the articles, and their writings do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of the Sarawak Museum Department, or that of the State Government of Sarawak. The Sarawak Museum Journal practises a double-blind peer-reviewed system on each manuscript prior to its publication in the journal. All manuscripts considered for publication will be peer-reviewed by independent referees.

AIMS AND SCOPE • The Sarawak Museum Journal (SMJ) is devoted to the advancement of knowledge in the natural and human sciences. The SMJ welcomes the submission of manuscripts that meet the criteria of this journal from but not limited to Sarawak.

- One issue is published annually by the Sarawak Museum Department in print and electronic version.
- The SMJ encourages submission of manuscripts dealing with all interdisciplinary topics related to Ethnography, Archaeology, Natural History, History, Conservation and Museology.
- The SMJ published original research work, either as full length articles or as short communications, review articles and special issues.

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS • The manuscript should be submitted in Microsoft Word (.docx / .doc) format and concisely written in English language or in Malay (please provide a Title and an Abstract in English). The submission must include a cover letter explaining the novelty of the work and in what way does the manuscript benefit Sarawak or the journal. Please submit via online submission at <https://museum.sarawak.gov.my>.

Footnotes should be assembled at the end of the text as Notes. References should be given with the author's surname and year of publication in the text and works listed at the end of the paper in alphabetical order of the first author's surname. Figures (charts, graphs or any illustrations) and Tables should be clearly presented. Permission must be obtained for the use of any tables or figures, if you are reproducing them from another source (including the Web) before submission.

SUBSCRIPTION • The subscription price is RM90.00 per issue. Please contact us at the following address, for postage rates and any other information: The Director, Sarawak Museum Department, Annex Building, P. Ramlee Road, 93400 Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia.
